

GUIDE TO PAYING FOR HNMUN 2011

Dear Harvard National Model United Nations Delegate or Advisor,

Thank you for your interest in Harvard National Model United Nations 2011. I am pleased to offer for the first time an annotated Guide to Paying for the Conference to assist our delegations in paying conference fees and navigating the website. For your convenience, this Guide will feature hyperlinked instructions, easy-to-understand descriptions, and annotated screenshots.

Reaffirming the conference's mission in maximizing accessibility and transparency, we are also offering Spanish and Chinese translations of this guide. We do not guarantee that these translations exactly match those of the English version and you should refer to the latter, if there are any discrepancies. Moreover, we must stress that these translations were provided first and foremost for your ease of use. Proficiency in English is still required for participation at HNMUN. Finally, all material found herein, on our website, and otherwise produced by HNMUN or its affiliates is the exclusive property of Harvard National Model United Nations. Unauthorized reproduction or dissemination of these materials is strictly prohibited.

If you have any questions, comments, or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me. As this is the first time we are preparing translations of our work, we would also appreciate any suggestions you may have in improving them. We look forward to meeting you and your delegates in February and, until then, best of luck in your preparation!

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Hwang
 Under-Secretary-General for Finance

PART A. PRELIMINARY CHECKLIST

- Have you registered your school using our innovative MUNBase registration system?
- Have you read our Conference Policies in their entirety?
- Have you made note of our Conference Fees and the penalties for late payments?

PART B. BEGINNING PAYMENT FOR HNMUN

This Guide will help you navigate the online payment system. Before explaining those processes, however, it may be prudent to review the various options that are open to you with regards to submitting your delegation's or individual conference fees.

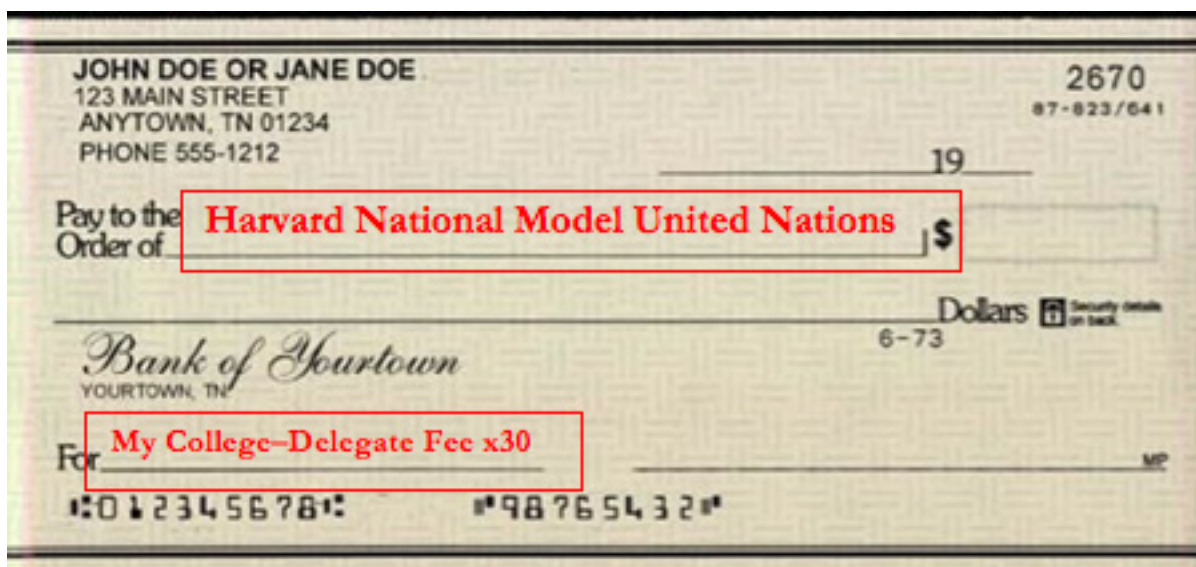

We strongly prefer delegations pay online, through the system that will be described later in this Guide. This electronic payment system via PayPal is the most convenient method, with zero fees for you (we pay a small amount on each transaction). Since payment is sent electronically, we can track monies expediently and nearly instantaneously.

If you are unable to pay online, reside in a location not covered by PayPal's services (please refer to the PayPal website), or do not have access to a credit card, we also accept checks. Please address the check to "Harvard National Model United Nations" and note in the check's memo field the exact fees the check payment is for. (e.g. "School Name – Registration Fee + Delegate Fees x 15") It is imperative that somewhere on the check or in an accompanying letter, we are able to determine: (1) the school, and (2) which fees the check is intended to cover.

Checks should be sent to:

Harvard National Model United Nations
 Harvard International Relations Council
 Student Organization Center at Hilles
 Box #205
 59 Shepard Street
 Cambridge, MA 02138

We normally do not accept any payments other than electronically or via check. In an extraordinary circumstance that both options have been exhausted and cannot be completed, please immediately contact the Under Secretary General for Finance (finance@hnmun.org) to arrange a wire transfer. Please note that because of the steep fees charged by wire transfers on our banking institution, all wire transfers must be accompanied by a supplemental transaction fee owed to HNMUN.

Welcome to HNMUN 2011

Dear Delegates and Faculty Advisors,

It is with great excitement that I welcome you to the 57th session of Harvard National Model United Nations. This conference will take place from Thursday, February 17th to Sunday, February 20th, 2011, at the historic Park Plaza hotel in downtown Boston.

Only a decade after the signing of the Charter of the United Nations, HNMUN was founded to recreate the spirit of diplomacy that continues to define this vital world institution. Now, in the fifty-seventh year of our attempt to model the UN, we are humbled by the prospect of bringing together 3,000 college and university students from over 35 nations throughout the world in order to engage in enlightening debate over the most pressing issues that face the international community today. Our staff of over 180 Harvard undergraduate students commits itself for over 11 months to creating a conference that will promote instructive dialogue and cultural exchange that are key to a memorable experience. As delegates fight for the interests of the countries they represent, their skills in researching, writing, negotiating, and public speaking will be put to the test.
